DESIGN YOUR OWN PORCELAIN WIND CHIMES

Colourful wind chimes not only bring colour and sound to the garden or over the front door, they also make lovely gift ideas. How about creating a wind chime together with the family? The family afternoon at Porzellanikon - Staatliches Museum für Porzellan, Selb, on Sunday 17 October 2021 offers the opportunity to do just that. It begins at 2:30 pm with an exciting adventure tour through the permanent exhibition on porcelain production, during which the museum team will vividly explain how porcelain tableware is made - from the preparation of the mass and the construction of plaster moulds to white production and decoration. After the tour, the workshop begins. Different, prefabricated porcelain pieces are available and waiting to be colourfully decorated by children and adults and assembled as wind chimes. The programme is suitable for children from the age of 6.

Family afternoons last about 2.5 hours and take place every third Sunday of the month with changing themes. The price is € 3.00 per person for materials. Adults pay an additional € 1.00 Sunday admission. Children up to 18 years are always free. Please register at besuchercenter@porzellanikon.org or call +49 9287 918000.
