Activities on International Museum Day at Porzellanikon

It is the 45th anniversary of International Museum Day! Under the motto "Discover museums with joy", museums around the world will celebrate this special day on Sunday, 15 May 2022. Of course, Porzellanikon - Staatliches Museum für Porzellan will also be taking part and offering a varied programme at both locations.

At Porzellanikon Selb, guided tours of the current special exhibition "More than bricks! Tradition and Future of Architectural Ceramics" (until 03.10.2022) and through the permanent exhibition on porcelain production. Creativity and fun experimenting are in demand at the various hands-on activities in the KREATIV factory at Porzellanikon. The former director's villa of the family-owned company C.M. Hutschenreuther in Hohenberg a.d. Eger is a stylish place to be: the highlight of Museum Day is the exclusive guided tour by curators through the new special exhibition "UNIKATE erzählen.
