Matinée with artist Gudrun Gaube at Porzellanikon Hohenberg a.d. Eger!

On Sunday, 10 July 2022, Porzellanikon - Staatliches Museum für Porzellan, Hohenberg a.d. Eger will be hosting a matinée with porcelain artist Gudrun Gaube from 2:30 to 5:00 pm. Her extraordinary objects enrich the current special exhibition "UNIKATE erzählen. Artistic Meissen 1970 - 2010".

Gudrun Gaube attended colleges in Halle, Dresden and Budapest, where she studied design and specialised in painting, graphics and decorative design. With these extensive skills in her luggage, she joined the "New Artistic Development" department of the Meissen State Porcelain Manufactory. Her personal style, which is characterised by playfulness, a variety of colours and a love of detail, is evident in her décor designs. The artist was mostly inspired by nature - both domestic and exotic. Many of her exhibits reflect this. The fact that nature is close to Gudrun Gaube's heart is not only evident in her art, she is also fundamentally concerned with it. Every day in her own garden, where she grows ornamental plants as well as fruit and vegetables and keeps a few animals. Even after her time at Meissen, Gudrun Gaube remained connected to porcelain. She continues to work creatively with the material in her own studio.

Interested visitors can look forward to an entertaining guided tour with the passionate and spirited artist and the curators Petra Werner and Maren Pilger and discover the exhibition together with them. During and after the tour, Gudrun Gaube will answer questions about her artworks and her work over sparkling wine and canapés.

The price of the matinée is € 15.00 and includes a guided tour, sparkling wine and canapés. Registration is required by phone +49 9287 918000 or besuchercenter@porzellanikon.org.
