Finissage of the special exhibition "UNIKATE erzählen. Artistic Meissen 1970 - 2010" at Porzellanikon Hohenberg a.d. Eger

With a finissage on Sunday, 8 January 2023, at 2:30 pm, the special exhibition "UNIKATE erzählen. Artistic Meissen 1970 - 2010" will come to an end. For the last time, visitors will have the opportunity to see exceptional and unique porcelain art from Meissen at Porzellanikon Hohenberg a.d. Eger within the framework of this special exhibition.

Anna Dziwetzki, director of Porzellanikon is pleased that visitors had the opportunity to get to know Meissen porcelain art of the 2nd half of the 20th century, as it is something very special. "With our exhibition concept, we have tried to reflect the history of the Artistic Development Department as well as the ideas, the inspirations and the thoughts of the artists. I hope we have succeeded - we have received a lot of praise," says the director and chief curator Petra Werner adds: "The interesting objects, which tell many exciting stories, will not be admired again so soon."

The finissage begins at 2:30 pm. The curators Petra Werner and Maren Pilger invite you to take a tour of the exhibition and show participants the largest unique collection of its kind, the HGM Collection, which Porzellanikon received from a Hamburg collector couple. Once again, around 200 objects - colourfully staged - are on display on almost 300 square metres. In a relaxed atmosphere with drinks and snacks, there is the opportunity to talk to each other and to the curators.

The price is Sunday admission 1,- Euro. Snacks and drinks will be served. Please register at besuchercenter@porzellanikon.org or 09287 918000 by Thursday, 05 January 2023. Further information at www.porzellanikon.org.
